CLASS PROPHECY

One night as I gazed out my window, 15 twinkling stars slowly fell to their destiny. Each star appeared to foretell the future of our Seniors, who have and will continue to strive to meet their destiny.

In the first falling star I see Reggie Jones, recent winner of The Masters in golf, on his way to buy his favorite weekly, "A Date With Judy."

The second star pictures Tom Jarratt as the President of Tom's Potato Chip Company. His motto is "Service with a smile."

The next star is very bright. I can see the crisp white uniforms of two nurses, Jane Owen and Barbara Hall. "Can you think of a better reason for getting sick, boys?"

I hear laughter. Yes, there is Ellwood Kientz, producer of the famous TV program "I Married JOAN."

The next vision is very cloudy and hazy, but as it cleared, I saw that Warren Poarch has been named head of the Atomic Energy Commission because of his recent bomb experiments.

As the next twinkling star appeared, I saw a green Ford in which I visualized two-no-three people. There sat Vivian and Thomas Morgan and their little dividend!

The seventh star left a blazing streak behind it. I saw that Dana had finally settled down to a quiet, peaceful married life with Billy Harding.

"Nothing could be finer than to be in Carolina," says Anne Pennington, who now lives there and is an elementary school teacher.

Tommy Harrison is now on a professional basketball team. What? "All Star of 1972?"

The next star appears. There is the secretary to the President of the Bell Telephone Company. It could be none other than our own Mary Jane Ricketts.

This star is very shiny and bright. I can see Bill Joyner, who has graduated from V.P.I. and is now surrounded by a lot of little "Kitty" cats.

Have you ever seen such a beautiful red star? It seems as if that red convertible visits Bob Jones College each week-end. I wonder why, Joyce Edwards.

Another twinkling star comes in view. Oh, Charlotte is satisfied with just J. V. now, since she made the J. V. team in 1961.

As the last twinkling star comes in view, I can hear the sound of music. Yes, it's Carolyn Sykes. She is chief pianist on the Lawrence Welk's show.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Seniors of Jarratt High School, with a note of sadness, but one of gladness also, do hereby grant the following things to the Juniors of 1961, and to the faculty, hoping each grant will come as they wish.

To Judy Barnes and Carolyn Richardson we leave many "Halls" of Fame.

To Tommy Owen we leave a remedy for shyness and a dozen girl friends.

To Joy Rideout we leave the controlling stock in "Rawlings" Truck Line and a ribbon to tie her "Bo."

To Judy Owen we leave permission to graduate with the Senior class for obvious reasons.

To Cary Williams we leave a new Jin "Rick" sha.

To Lynn Wheeler we leave an extra pair of eyes to replace the old battered ones.

To Herbert Myrick we leave a District "C" All-Star team.

To Steve Owen we leave a weeks vacation in "Reno."

To Gary Williams we leave a copy of our latest book, "FRANCES" THE TALKING MULE.

To Dolly Rodgester we leave a "CHAP"lin stick.

To Polly Rodgester we leave a bicycle to ride with Burnell on his paper route.

To Frances Sykes we leave a poem "'Gary' Had a Little Lamb."

To Carolyn Starke we leave a life time supply of "Terry" cloth.

To Nancy Woodruff we leave a recording of "Danny Boy."

To Rose Ellen Kientz we leave a 27-hour day--the extra 3 for Trig.

To Barbara Johnson we leave a book about the care of cats.

To Peggy Harris we leave our ability to make noise and be heard.

To Melvin Harrell we leave a copy of "'Ann'bel Lee."

To Loraine Gordon we leave a share in "Philipps" 66.

To Dorothy Jarratt we leave her brother Tom's friendly smile.

To Lloyd Whitney we leave a set of adjusted brakes to use in driving to next years basketball games.

To Mr. Mayes we leave a crime detector kit and a set of signs for the auditorium doors saying "One-way. Do not enter."

To Mr. Hall we leave an English class who will appreciate literature more and can answer the "100-for-the-day" questions.

To Mr. Unruh we leave a taxi to get to Trig on time.

To Mrs. Burruss we leave a private parking lot for her little "bug".

To Miss Hamlet and Mr. Poole we leave special rooms for their classes.

To Mrs. Harris we leave a "quiet" class to surprise Mr. Mayes.

To Mrs. Ricks we leave our appreciation for being such a wonderful home room teacher.

To Mrs. Saunders we leave our appreciation for helping with the annual.

To Mrs. Leonard we leave a crayfish to take the place of "RIP."

To Mrs. Rose we leave a glee club with the voices of nightingales.
